New York.

Dear Sirs:-

I have been informed that you contemplated publishing a volume by William E. Hidden on the Private Gold Coins of Georgia and the Carolinas. Will you kindly advise me whether this is correct, and how soon you expect to issue the volume. If you would kindly call me by phone to-morrow, Saturday morning, (Audubon 2484 - Mr. Noe) I should greatly appreciate the courtesy.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Dear Sirs:

I am informed that some ten or more years ago you published a single volume translation of Pausanias with illustrations. Can you give me more exact information regarding this volume? Is it procurable? If so, at what price?

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Gentlemen:

Kindly advise if there would be any advantage for this library to order from England the volumes of the "Cambridge Ancient History", published since volume II appeared - it is, of course, for the sake of obviating the payment of duty.

Has volume V yet been published?

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:

The first four volumes of the CAMBRIDGE ANCIENT HISTORY are priced at 35s. in England. In this country they are priced at $9.50, and as a library you would be entitled to a discount of twenty percent. From this, you will be able to figure out the advantage, if any, of direct importation. Of course, we do not like to encourage direct importation, and feel that libraries and educational institutions generally should support publishers in their effort to carry in this country important English books of limited sale. There is, as you can readily see, a limited circulation for many English publications, and yet it is distinctly to the advantage of the public that these books be represented here. Otherwise, there will be long delays in securing copies of them when they are needed in a hurry. Yet, because of the cost of importing, and the long tie-up of money in English stock, prices of English books are somewhat higher than they are in England just as in England prices of American books are higher than they are here.

Volume V has not as yet been published. We expect to have it within the next few weeks.

Yours very truly,

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

Gentlemen:

Please refer to your letters of April 4th and May 10th. The first of these, signed by your Mr. Latham, sets forth reasons why we should purchase English publications from American agents. The second letter, signed by your Mr. Collins, states that volume 5 of the "Cambridge Ancient History" had not yet been published. You will note that it is dated May 10th and that "if we wished, he would be glad to hold our order and send it on publication." The letter of May 10th is in response to a request of mine for information regarding this volume 5, of which I had previously seen two copies.

Will you be so good as to explain to me why others can obtain copies of this fifth volume and why your office responds that it is not yet published?

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:

Your letter of June 16th has been brought to my attention. In the case of Volume V of the CAMBRIDGE ANCIENT HISTORY, there has been an unfortunate delay, due apparently to the failure of the English publisher to send us our sheets promptly, or to an unprecedented time in transporting these sheets and in getting them through the Customs House. I have not as yet located the real cause, but it must be one of these. You say that you have seen two copies of Volume V. The copies that you have seen must have been of the English edition, since we have not as yet received any bound copies from our binders of our edition. We import the book in sheets, and bind over here. We are very sorry indeed that you have been inconvenienced through this delay. We have your order on file and will send it just as soon as possible. The book is dated for publication on next Tuesday, June 21st.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sirs:

I have recently had an inquiry regarding the address of a Mr. Ernest Lemcke who is apparently a student of Anglo Saxon history, and whose whereabouts is desired by a European correspondent. It occurs to me that he may be one of the subscribers to the American Historical Review, and I shall be glad if you can give me any information which will enable me to reach him.

Trusting my request will not put you to any undue inconvenience, I beg to subscribe myself,
